Questions Questions Questions

1-What is SmeallTech ?

- Think Geocities of old. As in my personal Geocities.
- Think in part of the Movie “Pay it Forward” Produce something, food and knowledge of such and GIVE it away! Keep some for yourself obviously, but GIVE, in hopefully a fun and interesting way, with NO Preaching or CONS. A nice little Hobby to get you away from this FNING computer. It’s a swell way to have a little fun too and meet nice people just like you.
- NONE profit. Some related page links or notes will go to items that are not free, but I have reviewed them and may have even purchased them.
- Basically the core is both the Forum and my Papers or Rants. The Forum is for the discussion of private and community energy and food production systems. [More in paper about the Forum]
- Politically NEUTRAL. Enough said, think Switzerland

2-Who is Phil Smeall

- Not important really, who I am. This page and more importantly the related forum shall be about nice people like you and me, who want a nice productive Hobby. In addition like all groups and clubs it is NOT for everybody.
- Some personal details. First it is NOT all about me. I loaned my name to this web page and forum, and it's play on the word "meal" ... as it fits. Both in terms of my love for food and enjoying watching things grow. I have a fairly strong technical background in the Energy Field, with considerable experience with home gardens, and related details. Politically I am an independent with some limited Libertarian leanings ... sound foggy? GOOD!
- Oh yes I like Cats, Dogs too, properly trained ones ...trained Cats?
Oh YOU FUNNY PERSON YOU!

- Privacy. Although I use my real name, you do not have to use yours in the forum...however nasty trolls will get the BOOT... [More in paper about the Forum]. If you know me great. Friend or not, start posting anything about me good or bad and you may hear from my lawyer. "I have a life, and if you do not, then keep yourself to yourself, especially if you are one whom others can only take in small doses. I have excellent blocking features for both my Email and Forum, which I shall use, if I have to. Incidentally, if you want to communicate a birthday greeting to myself or loved one etc etc, then use my Email address, not the Forum."

3- Incidentals; *where did the cute cat animations come from? Here <http://www.usmessageboard.com/threads/animation-at-its-funniest.318010/> If they are yours and you want them off this page then just Email me Phil@SmeallTech.com Same with any other pic or gif I found in the public domain. Most have been contacted for fair use by the apparent owner, so if you are just kidding and are not the real owner, I will have the original apparent owner contact YOU [I will obey all reasonable cease and desist orders]... then you can both have fun ☺ slapping each other around over some cat-gif, while I use another cute kitty gif in the meantime.
